REPORTER OF THE WEEK

Tuesday, November 20, 2001

President Helen Reisler opened the Fellowship Day meeting with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Scarlett Pildes, accompanied at the piano by David Dingle. Mats Ingemanson gave the invocation. Bonnie Mairs introduced the visiting Rotarians; two international visitors, and four from the U.S. We all sang the welcome song.

President Helen announced that she is currently working on a project, which focuses on the sponsorship of families of fallen policemen and firemen by Rotarians.

Sylvan Barnet announced that the next breakfast meeting will take place on Wednesday, November 28.

Lou DiPaolo introduced a delegation of Italian architects to the New York Rotarians. These architects will be working on refurbishing the United Nations, and are close friends with our member Matthew Salerno.

Philip, a young gentleman from Rotaract, made a pitch for this year's Toy Drive. Philip is currently doing an internship at the Museum of Jewish Heritage and is originally from Linz, Austria. He thanked New York Rotary for giving him the chance to introduce himself.

Bonnie Mairs announced that the YMCA has been housing emergency workers, working at ground zero. They also have been doing grief counseling for the families of the victims.

Helen ended the meeting by announcing Andreas Runggatscher's birthday.

Rotarian – Arthur Auslander

The Gift of Life, Inc., cordially invites you to their Annual Kick-off Dinner, on November 28, to recognize William Metzendorf, PDG, for his leadership and guidance as District Governor 7250 for 2000-2001. This dinner will take place at the Swan Club in Glenwood Road and Scudders Lane, in Roslyn Harbor, NY.

Cocktails and Dinner 6:30 p.m.
